Attention all middle school readers! If you have a passion for books, this club is your perfect fit! We read, discuss, and even have fun optional activities like quiz bowls and creative projects such as fan fiction, fan art, book talks, and video commercials. The club revolves around the latest releases on the Junior Tome Society's "It List," which you can find at <http://www.tomesociety.org/23-24-junior-tome-it-list.html>.

Reading bowl participation is entirely up to you; it's not mandatory for membership. However, if you decide to take part, please sign up during Quarter 1 and commit to reading all the books within the indicated timeframes: Quarter 1: August, September, October; Quarter 2: November, December, January, February; Quarter 3: March, April, May.

But that's not all! We may also have the opportunity to read to elementary students in ASP during our club time and occasionally visit Kindergarteners.

At the end of Quarter 2, we'll celebrate our achievements with a winter gathering, possibly at a nearby Mexican restaurant (yummmmm!).

Quarter 3 will be extra special with a pizza party to celebrate the release of next year's "It List!"

And the fun doesn't stop there! In March, there's an optional field trip to TomeCon: Where Authors are Rock Stars! This incredible opportunity is open to any student currently or formerly enrolled in the club at CCA, at an additional cost (early-bird student registration last year was $30). We'll likely be heading to the University of North Georgia - Gainesville campus. Join us for this fantastic adventure!

Finally, Quarter 4 will be dedicated to independent reading time for those eager to get a head start on next year's releases, hitting the shelves in February.

Don't miss out on the excitement! Join our book-loving community today!
